Dear Vanessa,

Hi, how are you? You and I have exchanged e-mails regarding Taiwan before. However, I'm reaching out to you today on another key foreign policy matter. Just so you know, Park Strategies, LLC and I are registered with the U.S. Department of Justice, under the Foreign Agents Registration Act, as agents on behalf of our client, the Republic of Somalia.

As I'm sure you've heard and read, Somalia's Transitional Federal Government is leading a valiant effort to hold off a vicious insurgency from the al Qaeda-linked Harakat al-Shabaab. In fact, many of Somalia's leaders, including Prime Minister Mohamed Abdullahi Mohamed himself (please see the Prime Minister's bio attached), are U.S. citizens who have gone home to wage this gallant struggle and are in turn risking their lives. What's more, abject famine also plagues Somalia.

Next Wednesday, April 6th, my colleague, John Zagame, and I will be in Washington, D.C. with Abukar Arman. Ambassador Arman is Somalia's Special Envoy to the United States. Before accepting his current position, he was an independent analyst and a community advocate. Over the years, he has written extensively about U.S. foreign policy vis-à-vis Somalia and the Islamic world, and lectured on violent extremism and the role of inter-faith relations in peace-building. Mr. Arman is listed on the Speakers Bureau of the speakers in Ohio Humanities Council.

Could John and I possibly stop by next Wednesday, April 6th to briefly introduce you and/or the right person in your office to Ambassador Arman? As a member of the Senate Committees on Intelligence and Foreign Relations, I'm sure Senator Risch can benefit from what you might be able to tell him after you meet Ambassador Arman. Thanks for any time you can afford us, and thanks in advance for your kind consideration. We hope to spend some time with your office soon.

Best wishes,
